Digital Dentistry

We use the latest technologies in our clinics and apply all treatments with digital dentistry.

Advantages of digital dentistry are,

- Minimizes the completion time of treatments.
- Thanks to the digital scanning taken with an intraoral camera connected to the CAD-CAM system, the success and aesthetics of the treatments increase.

- Increases the possibility of using materials with high aesthetic and biological compatibility.
- By using this system, dental restoration can be completed in the same session.
- It eliminates the nausea reflex created by the conventional impression techniques.

Smile Design

Thanks to digital dentistry, changes can be made on teeth that have been converted into 3D with an intraoral camera, and a new restoration can be seen before the treatment by matching the images of possible finished teeth with the patient's real face photograph.
